Your Dreams Can a Duraclean Service

You have a more enjoyable career
...and you can start full or part time

Hundreds of men—previously working for salaries or wages—now enjoy greatly increased incomes, personal independence, and secure futures as owners of a low-investment, high-profit, lifetime business

Unthinking men may tell you that the day is past when an individual can build a successful business of his own. The fact is that service businesses have opened a new world of opportunity. The "mama and papa" grocery store and the corner druggist have succumbed to the gigantic chains. But, in their place, an exciting new kind of business offers big profit opportunities for the individual.

For twenty years the "service industry" has grown with fantastic speed. Let the chains have the retail store business. Even a small service business providing an unusual service can bring profits to the individual that were unheard of in the old days.

What is the difference? Just this: Chain stores operate under the same plan; under the same well-known name; but are owned by one corporation. In franchising, the individual uses tested and proven plans for starting his business and building it; he operates under a

Become a Reality with Business

Nationally Advertised and well-known name, he has step by step guidance but he owns the business. He enjoys the advantages of a chain, but he keeps all the profits for himself.

With a Duraclean Service Dealership, there is no store to rent. No fixtures to buy. No inventory or stock of goods to pay for. And, no special education or experience is needed. Men of almost every educational level have made outstanding successes with the "know-how" furnished by our Company.

They've worked from their homes, as these services are rendered on the customer's premises. Usually, the portable equipment is carried in their car trunk until profits pay for their first truck. A cash outlay of only $2188 puts them in business, and the company will finance the balance of the total $6500 cost, without interest or finance charges.

You have a modern method of cleaning and reviving color and resilience of carpets, rugs, upholstered furniture and auto interiors. It has visible superiority over the old ways of harsh scrubbing, strong detergents, and power driven brushes. Independent laboratory tests show that the Duraclean "Absorption Method" removes twice as much dirt and soil as machine scrubbing. And everything is dry, ready to use in a few hours.

You have six other superior services. The Duraclean processes have proved so superior that Duraclean Services are now available worldwide.

Who are your customers? Homes, hotels, motels, schools, shops, stores, offices, theaters, hospitals, institutions.

Your future? You can start with a big operation . . . or many start alone or with only 1 or 2 servicemen. Each can render

Dreams of others have come true

"I'm now on an income level I never thought possible working for others, with my limited educational background."

G. M. Burns, Fla.

"I've never seen anything build as fast or as well as this dealership. The first year, I made more money than in my previous high salary job."

Fred Williams, La.

"The largest Duraclean job I've had was for 26 condominiums. Took 8 days and paid me $2,780. I now employ 2 full time servicemen."

R. B. Thompson, Calif.

"My biggest job was at the airport Hilton Inn. It paid me $4,290 and took 200 hours, including travel time. Duraclean is by far the best deal I've ever had."

up to $125 service (often more) in a day. As you add servicemen, your profits climb sharply . . . and we furnish and pay for their equipment.

Start full time . . . or spare time adding your business profit to job salary until your business income warrants full time.

If you've ever wanted to "some day" own your own business you should investigate now, TODAY. The Duraclean Opportunity is fully explained in a 24-page book. It will be mailed free to any person who is sincerely interested in a future of security and independence. Just mail the coupon for full details. No salesman will call on you.

We'll help you with financing, up to twice your cash investment, and with nearly fifty years of experience showing men how to make their dreams become realities. It costs you nothing to investigate and does not place you under the slightest obligation. Isn't this something you should do for yourself? Today?

YOU ASKED US

Here's the monthly feature which YOU get to write! It's your chance to have a top wrestler answer YOUR question! Only the best questions will be answered—so put on your thinking caps and come up with some good ones! Address your questions—and who you would like to have answer them—to: YOU ASKED US, c/o THE WRESTLER, PO BOX 48, Rockville Centre, N.Y. 11571. Questions will be answered only in this column and at our discretion!

"Hold it right there," Andre says. "Sure I appeared in 'B.J. and the Bear,' but that certainly doesn't mean I'm thinking of leaving wrestling." Andre receives offers from Hollywood producers quite frequently, but his busy wrestling schedule severely limits his time.

Q: Was I seeing things or was it really wrestling's Andre the Giant on the season premiere of B.J. and the Bear? If it was really him, is Andre thinking of turning to movies and leaving the wrestling world?—

A: Yes, Andre the Giant, who has appeared on television's The Six Million Dollar Man, was on B.J. and the Bear. Despite numerous offers from publicity-crazed Hollywood agents and producers, Andre insists he is not yet ready to leave the squared circle for the world of motion pictures.

Q: Dusty Rhodes came on Georgia television with a cast on his arm and stated that Terry Funk broke it in three places. Is this true and what is Terry's viewpoint on this situation?—Russell Shattles, College Park, Ga.

His arm still bandaged, Dusty Rhodes battles maniac Mark Lewin. Rhodes' arm was broken by Terry Funk, causing his loss of the NWA title to Harley Race.

A: As most fans are aware, Funk interfered before that historic rematch between Rhodes and Harley Race for the NWA title. Resultantly, Rhodes' arm was broken. All fans can be warmed by the knowledge that Rhodes' arm is healed and the cast is off. As for Funk, he says, "I did it because that bum Rhodes deserved it. He's been bad-mouthing me, my brother, and my beloved Texas. If he was standing before me I'd pop his face again."

Get in on the PROFITS in SMALL ENGINE service and repair Start your own money

BEAT INFLATION!

Cash in on the huge demand for small engine repair.

Work part time, full time right at home - we help you every step of the way.

In just a short time, you can be ready to join one of the fastest growing industries in America...an industry where qualified men are making from $10.00 to $15.00 per hour...and that's just for labor. Parts, engines and accessories add even more to the profits.

Because the small engine industry has grown so quickly, an acute shortage of qualified Small Engine Professionals exists throughout the country. In fact, it's not unusual for a good small engine man to be three to four weeks behind in the summer and at least a week behind in the winter. When you see how many small engines are in use today, it's easy to understand why qualified men command such high prices—as much as $17.50 for a simple tune-up that takes less than an hour!

46-million small engines are in service today!

That's right—there are over forty-six million 2-cycle and 4-cycle small engines in service across the U.S.A. That's the official count from the Engine Service Assn., and new engines are being built at a rate of one-million per month! With fully accredited and approved Belsaw training, you can soon have the skill and knowledge to make top money servicing these engines. Homeowners and businessmen will seek you out and pay you well to service and repair their lawnmowers, tillers, edgers, power rakes, garden tractors, chain saws, mini-bikes, go-carts, snowmobiles, generators, snowblowers, paint sprayers...the list is almost endless.

No experience necessary.

You don't need to be a 'born mechanic' or have prior experience. If you can read, you can master this profitable trade right at home, in your sparetime, without missing a single paycheck. Lessons are fully illustrated—so clear you can't go wrong.

You receive trade secrets and business plans.

We guide you every step of the way, including tested and proven instructions on how to get business, what to charge, how to get free advertising, where to get supplies wholesale...all the "tricks of the trade"...all the inside facts you need to assure success right from the start.

Every issue, this magazine praises the noteworthy and damns those who violate the spirit of wrestling's dignity. The praiseworthy are given a "thumbs up," the disgraceful are marked with "thumbs down." Here is this month's roll of honor and shame

Thumbs Up

THUMBS UP to Jim Brunzell: Everyone enters wrestling hoping to attain stardom and a major title. The tragedy is that so few achieve this monumental success. Jim Brunzell is one of the lucky ones. In his recent victory over Ken Patera, he won the Mid-Atlantic title and the hearts of millions with his courageous persistence.

THUMBS DOWN to Terry Funk: The stench of his unprovoked assault on Dusty Rhodes prior to the NWA title match still clings to Florida arenas. Despite Funk's glib explanation, no real fan can ever forgive him.

THUMBS UP to Harley Race: It would have been easy for Race to take advantage of Funk's senseless attack. But Race was sickened by Funk's behavior. He's a champion and he wanted to regain his title fairly. If there were any doubts about Race's character, he dispelled them that evening.

THUMBS DOWN to Pat Patterson: Already, the Patterson-Backlund battles are evolving into one of wrestling's bloodiest feuds. Patterson has an evil reputation and his despicable conduct of late supports all the disgraceful rumors. The thought of Pat Patterson as WWF champion sends shudders throughout the wrestling community.

THUMBS UP to Mr. Wrestling II: Here is a man who has never deviated from the principles of right and wrong. Consistently, he has maintained his high moral fiber while charting a brilliant career. Bravo, II!

THUMBS DOWN to Greg Valentine: Is there anything left to offer Valentine's career except our contempt? He embodies all that is loathsome in the world: cruel, insensitive, ruthless. Surely there is someone out there who can stop him before it's too late.

THUMBS UP to Verne Gagne: The grand veteran of the AWA has never relaxed his pursuit of the AWA title. He finds current champion Nick Bockwinkel's personality and wrestling style very distasteful. Verne will not stop until he is champion again. And that is commendable.

THUMBS DOWN to Jimmy Snuka: When will they learn? Snuka is another victim of greed. Falling beneath Buddy Rogers' hypnotic spell, Snuka abandoned his fans and turned rulebreaker. His self-serving explanations fall on deaf ears. Shame on you, Snuka.

THUMBS UP to Bruno Sammartino: His continued excellence in both broadcasting and wrestling earns him respect. Despite vicious provocations from several rulebreakers, Sammartino maintains his poise and objectivity. In every sense, Sammartino is still the "Living Legend."

THUMBS UP to Bruiser Brodie: The shock of black hair still frames the intense face. And his aggressive style of wrestling has not changed. Yet Brodie appears more responsive to the fans. His friendship with the Von Erichs supports that assessment.

Bob and Don Fulton fought to a draw with Ricky and Robert Gibson . . . Bobby Eaton and George Gulas overcame Tojo Yamamoto and Hans Schroder.

EL PASO, TEXAS—Correspondent: Enrique Gonzalez—This was a special appearance by The Sheik to rid Texas of Dick Murdoch. As the match started, The Sheik quickly opened a cut on Murdoch's forehead. The rest of the action took place outside the ring with both wrestlers bleeding and battling on the concrete floor. Originally, the referee declared a double disqualification. However, after The Sheik beat up the referee, the decision was changed and victory awarded to Murdoch.

In other bouts, El Gran Marcus whipped Don Factor . . . Gary Young toppled Alex Perez.

ORLANDO, FLA.—Correspondent: Earl Roop—A lights out match was scheduled between Dusty Rhodes and Dory Funk Jr. However, Terry Funk and Andre the Giant got involved in a melee prior to the match. Before anyone realized what happened, all four were battling and clawing. It was a fight to the finish! Eventually, Dory and Dusty squared off. Dory wished it never happened because Rhodes beat him black and blue!

In other matches, Andre the Giant won by disqualification over Terry Funk . . . Mike Graham and Ray Stevens retained their Florida tag team title against Mr. Hito and Mr. Sakurada . . . Manny Fernandez won by disqualification over Buggy McGraw . . . Sweet Brown Sugar and Steve Keirn stunned Thor the Viking and Brian St. John.

ASHEVILLE, N.C.—Correspondent: Allen Ward—Paul Jones and Baron Von Raschke put their NWA tag team titles on the line against former champions Ric Flair and Blackjack Mulligan. Flair and Mulligan bounced the champs around the ring much of the fight. It took cheating for Jones and Von Raschke to retain their title.

In other matches, Johnny Weaver won by disqualification over Dewey Robertson . . . Cocoa Samoa and Cowboy Lang

Terry Funk and Andre the Giant had an impromptu meeting outside the ring while Dory Funk Jr. (pictured) and Dusty Rhodes battled inside.

Stan Stasiak displays the fist that has sent so many wrestlers to the hospital. Stasiak was beaten by Buddy Rose in a unique "center jump coal miners glove match" when he was attacked from behind, while the referee lay unconscious.

defeated Swede Hanson and Billy the Kid . . . David Patterson smashed Joe Fury.

TACOMA, WASH.: Correspondent: Ken Hamblin—The Pavillion was the scene of the continuing grudge match between Stan Stasiak and Buddy Rose. This time a center jump coal miners glove match was the manner of battle. They would both face off like basketball centers as they jumped for the loaded glove. In the skirmish, the referee was knocked unconscious. That enabled Rose to assault Stasiak from behind for a blemished victory.

In other bouts, Don Leo Jonathan bounced Bruiser Gene Kelly . . . Steve Pardee drew with Rip Rodgers . . . Johnny Mantell bested Luke Williams . . . King Parsons and Johnny Mantell stomped the Fabulous Shepherders. □

WHAT'S HAPPENING!

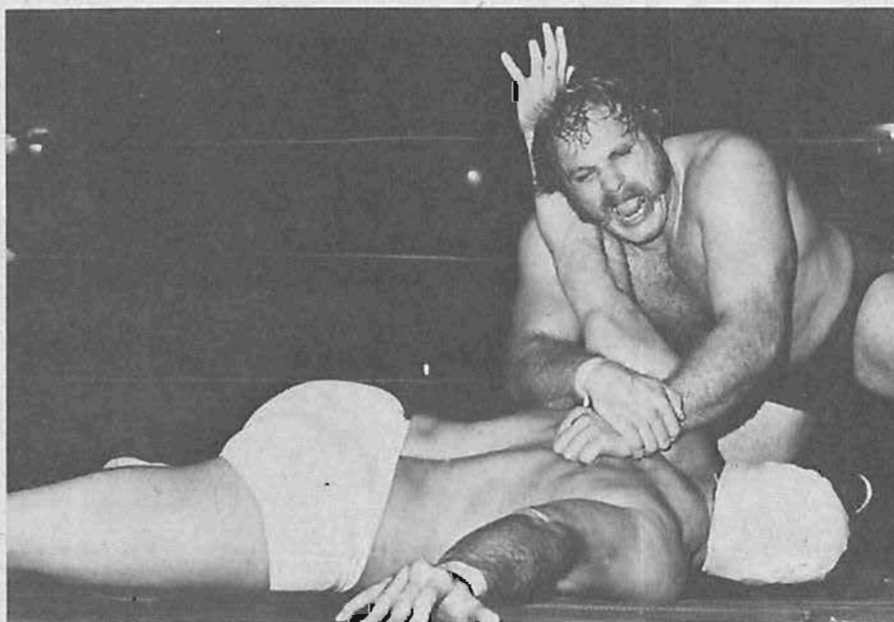

By BILL APTER

POPULAR BOB ARMSTRONG announced to the world that he had hired a "hit man" to help him in his war against Bobby Heenan's "family," consisting of Blackjack Lanza, Masked Superstar, and Killer Kox. The world was shocked when Bob unveiled his hired hand, the hated Ole Anderson!

"I'll do anything for money," Anderson admits, "even tag team with Armstrong." But now Anderson's values have changed.

Heenan has sent members of his family to attack Ole on several TV interviews. "No one does that to me," Anderson says. "I hate Heenan, his men, and all they stand for. I, along with Armstrong, Tommy Rich, and Wahoo McDaniel will run them out of Georgia forever!"

Anderson certainly has his hands full these days. He and Ernie Ladd are the Georgia tag team champions, but they are at war with each other! The Georgia commission has ordered the title stripped from the pair if they don't defend within 30 days (a tournament would be held to determine new champions). We'll keep you posted.

Ole Anderson, applying an armlock to Tim Woods, has been hired by Bob Armstrong to help battle Bobby Heenan's stable of wrestlers. While Georgia tag team champions Anderson and Ernie Ladd have been feuding, they have not defended the title and may soon be stripped of the belts.

The three Valiant Brothers—Johnny, Jimmy and Jerry—are all looking for individual matches against their former manager and friend Captain Lou Albano. "Give him to us as a single or we'll rattle him along with those Samoan flunkies of his. We want Albano's hide!" the Valiants declare.

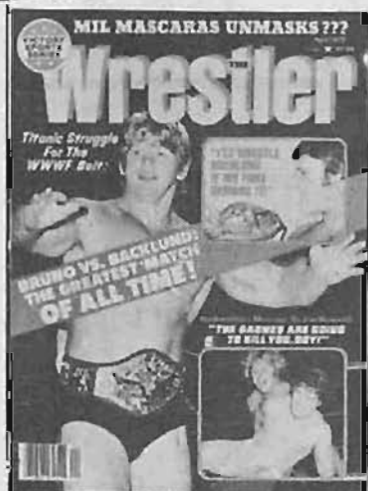

Dusty Rhodes is back from Japan after a two week stint there.

"Stardust" says he is in the best shape of his life and vows to win the NWA title back from Harley Race within the next few months . . . Thor the Viking has been banned in Florida for a two-year period due to his treacherous actions in that state's arenas . . . Jim Brunzell proudly holds his Mid-Atlantic title after defeating

Q&A

Each month, THE WRESTLER will present a "Question and Answer" forum with an important figure in the wrestling world. It is your chance to meet wrestling's biggest stars as they answer the questions uppermost on the fans' minds Bobby Duncum, one of the roughest wrestlers during the past 10 years, bulldogs Greg Gagne face-first to the canvas. Duncum has traveled the nation, he says, to find wrestlers man enough to stay in the ring with him.

- Q: Bobby, why have you returned to the WWF?
- A: I'm running out of places. Everywhere I go, my opponents fall apart.
- Q: Is that why you rarely stay long in any place?
- A: Yup. I go through opponents awful quick. Dudes are awful brittle nowadays. Seems they break at the slightest touch.
- Q: You have anything to do with that?
- A: Ain't my fault guys can't take punishment. Maybe they don't take their vitamins. (Laughs).
- Q: Last time you were here, the Grand Wizard managed you. This time it's Lou Albano. Why the change?
- A: I'm glad you asked that because I don't want no lemon heads talkin' like there was a rift between me and the Wiz. When I decided to come back to the WWF and teach Backlund a lesson, I called the Wiz. We had a nice, friendly chat and I asked him to manage me. The Wiz explained he was awful busy managing Swede Hanson and others and he didn't have the time for me. He suggested I give the Captain a call. Lou was quite pleased to hear from

BOB DUNCUM

Bobby Duncum is not called "Big" for nothing. A towering figure at 6-8, 300 pounds, Duncum is once again in the WWF. During his last tour in that area, Duncum compiled a spectacular winning streak which catapulted him into the national spotlight and title matches against then-WWF champion Bruno Sammartino. Currently under the managerial reigns of Captain Louis Albano, Duncum claims to be better than ever. He vows to take Bob Backlund's belt before the end of the year. Our interview took place in the New York office of THE WRESTLER Magazine.

me and immediately, we started plotting.

Q: Sammartino has often said you were his toughest foe. What's your reaction to that?

A: Wish I could return the compliment. Sammartino isn't bad as overweight has-beens go, but he's not the hardest guy I ever faced.

Q: Who would be?

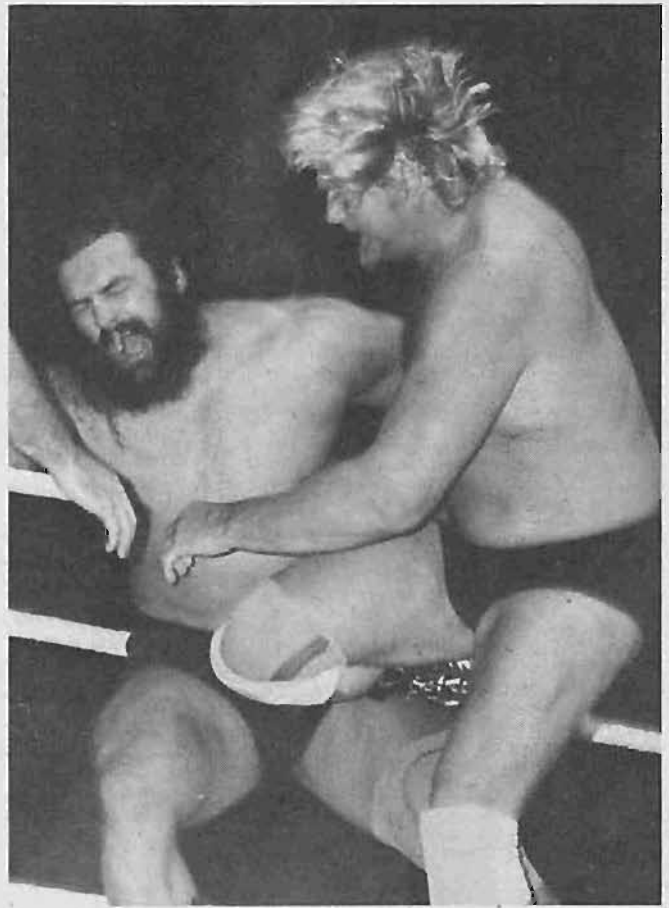

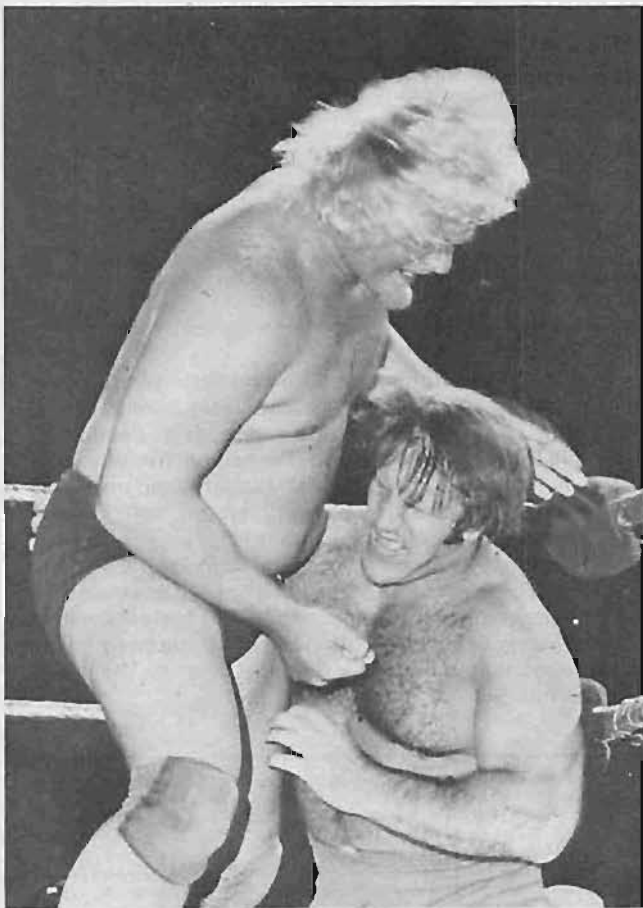

A: I'd rather not say.

Q: So you're not interested in wrestling Sammartino?

A: Nah, what would I prove? He hasn't got the belt and he wouldn't give me any competition. Sadly, he's the best in the federation. So I figure if I whipped Sammartino, I'd demolish Backlund.

Q: What sort of strategy would you employ against

Dusty looks in good form as he lands an elbowsmash to Mark Lewin's forehead (left), but Lewin easily took the upper hand (above and right).

At first, people brushed it off. Then they became somewhat concerned. Now it seems evident—Dusty Rhodes is slumping. But why? Was he seriously injured by Terry Funk or is it post-title blues? The possibilities are explored

The Question Confronting Wrestling: HAS DUSTY

QUICKLY! WHAT DO Jack Brisco, Terry Funk, Harley Race, and Dusty Rhodes have in common? Oh, it seems easy. Sure, they've all held the NWA title at one time or another. But more than links these four disparate personalities.

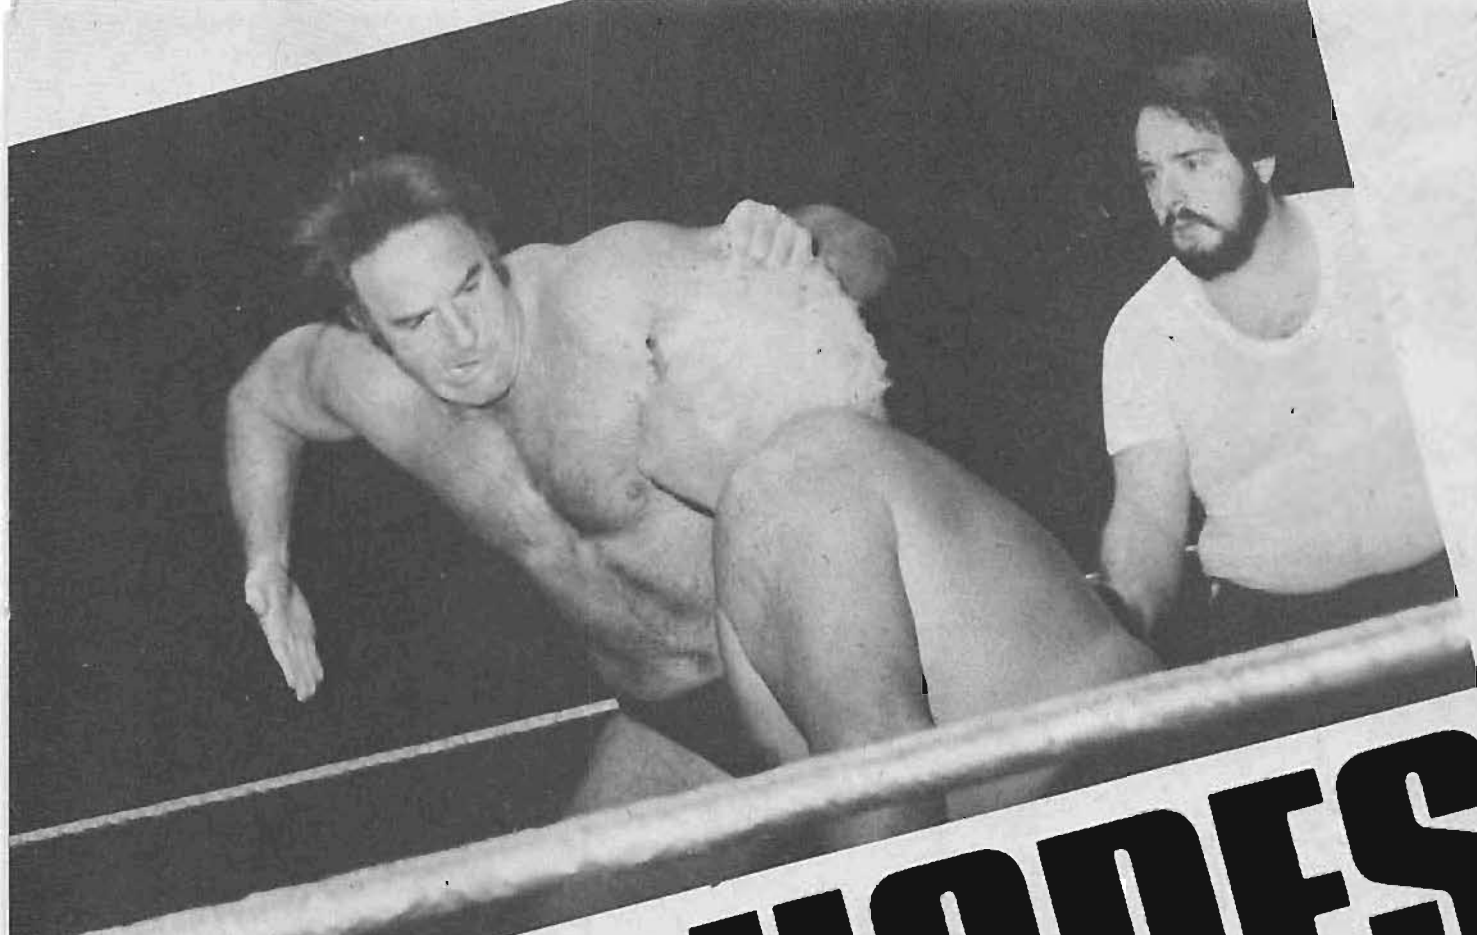

After Brisco lost the title, his game declined sharply. Terry Funk retired for a while after losing the championship. Harley Race's post-title bouts were characterized by an unusual sluggishness, nearly approaching apathy.

Now Dusty Rhodes is slumping. Since that fateful night in Orlando when Terry Funk, Harley Race, and a broken arm combined to rip the title from Rhodes, the American Dream has been, well, something less than brilliant.

"I don't know what it is," Rhodes said, shaking his head. "I'm just not doing it out there."

Whether this is a transitory slump or a permanent loss is something our distinguished panel addressed themselves to in a recent session in Florida. Due to the controversial and delicate situation these experts found themselves in, anonymity was requested and granted.

"Not one man in wrestling compares with Dusty Rhodes when it comes to intensity," said a member of the panel, a gray-haired man smoking a long cigar. "That's why I think he's in danger of blowing it."

"Emotion is an integral part of Rhodes' makeup in the ring.

Without that unharnessed energy and drive, Rhodes is a guy named Joe. And I think the way he lost the title demoralized him."

The manner in which Rhodes lost his beloved belt was the crucial component, according to the panel.

"If Rhodes had just lost it, he could have come back with both feet on the ground," remarked a short, heavy-set man with thinning black hair and piercing blue eyes. "Unlike the others, Rhodes could have accepted the adversity, no matter the painful disappointment. Rhodes has a lot of character like that."

"But Rhodes was crushed the way Funk interfered," the man continued. "Dusty has pride. When he beat Race, he was flying

Beyond the Squared Circle

Don Curtis, formerly Mark Lewin's tag team partner, is now a successful promoter in Jacksonville.

Bob Geigel, a very successful wrestler since the late '60s, is the NWA's top executive.

Andy Kaufman, a star of television's "Taxi" and a frequent guest on "Saturday Night Live" grapples with Dusty Rhodes.

Terry Boulder, currently wrestling in the Memphis area, would much prefer to be referred to as the Incredible Hulk. Boulder, who has 22-inch biceps, claims to possess twice the strength of television's "Incredible Hulk," Lou Ferrigno.

Sweet Brown Sugar's fans come in all ages. The high-flying masked man has quite a following.

Prior to a match, Jerry Brisco sits alone to prepare himself mentally.

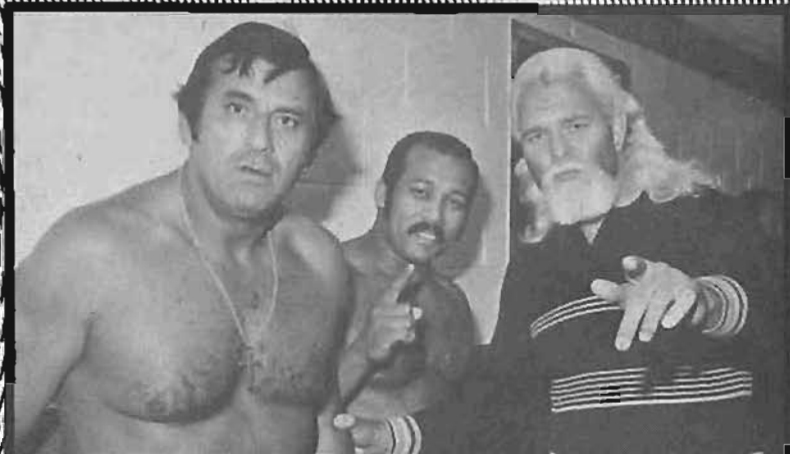

Freddie Blassie, manager of some of the most notorious villains over the past five years, arrives at Madison Square Garden.

Why the Experts Say

RIC FLAIR'S DAYS AS A FAN FAVORITE ARE OVER

According to a wrestling expert, Ric Flair's personality might be too volatile to continue to team with established fan favorites. Left: Ric is doubleteamed by Baron Von Raschke and Paul Jones. Below: Ric and Blackjack Mulligan are victorious.

SOL KUGEL SIGHED and pushed away the half-eaten sandwich. His small, windowless office appeared cramped. Behind his squat frame was a jagged line of wrestling photographs. Men bloody. Men victorious. Men in combat. Off to both sides were metal file cabinets. A top drawer on the battered hulk off to the right was opened and spilling its guts. Files and photos.

Another sigh and Kugel sipped his coffee. It was lukewarm, unlike his opinions. Sol Kugel is what is known as an expert. He has watched Mid-Atlantic wrestling for longer than he'd like to admit. Of all the so-called experts, Kugel's words and opinions are respected most throughout the area.

So when a man like Sol Kugel lights a long cigar, leans back in his swivel desk chair and blows smoke rings, you know something is about to happen. Kugel didn't disappoint.

"Ric Flair is a helluva wrestler," Sol said, exhaling gray smoke. "I've always felt he had the potential to be one of the greats. Maybe a champ. Something in the way he wrestles out there reminds me of other greats, but his wires are a little crossed.

"I recognize that wrestling isn't logical. You can't expose mere mortals to the sort of pressure and attention they get and expect to predict what they'll be like," Kugel said, returning to his sandwich.

"In assessing wrestlers, I keep one thought foremost in my head." Kugel leaned forward, his cigar poised, ready to make a point. "These guys are only human. They have faults and good points just like everyone else. You can't look at them like they were machines. You have to incorporate every variable you can."

Kugel shrugged and tossed a

Ric Flair has basked in the sunshine of the fans' love for several months now. But suddenly, a dark cloud looms on the horizon. Greg Valentine has returned to Mid-Atlantic wrestling. And he vows to turn his former partner back into a hated rulebreaker. Do the experts think he can do it?

Obsessions can drive even the most normal of men right to the edge of insanity. Steve Keirn is obsessed. In his mind, he must avenge the humiliation of Dusty Rhodes. He must destroy Terry Funk and Harley Race . . . even if he destroys himself first STEVE KEIRN has not spoken to Dusty Rhodes since the tragic ending to Dusty's five-day reign as NWA champion. He couldn't.

"I was absolutely crushed when it happened," Keirn said. "At that point I made a vow to avenge the incident. I intend to do it if it's the only thing I ever accomplish for the rest of my life."

Keirn wasn't actually present when Terry Funk attacked Dusty and broke his arm prior to his NWA heavyweight title defense against Harley Race, the man he took the belt from five days earlier. He had already wrestled on that card in Orlando, Florida, and was in the dressing room. By the time he and several other wrestlers reached the ring to aid Rhodes, Funk had departed with police protection.

"In my entire life, I never knew what hate was all about," Keirn said. "I thought I hated, but I guess I never really did. I know that now because the feelings I have for Funk are feelings I have never experienced in the past."

"And then there is the matter of that sniveling coward Race. If he thought he was truly worthy of that title, he wouldn't have wrestled Rhodes once Dusty's arm was broken. Geez, Dusty sure wouldn't have wrestled him under those conditions."

"Funk and Race. Race and Funk. It doesn't matter which order. But I'm going to make them both very sorry for what they did to Dusty Rhodes."

Keirn has an attachment to Rhodes not commonly found between two wrestlers. It dates back to Keirn's rookie year in pro wrestling. At that time Rhodes was going through a major transition. For years, he was a hated rulebreaker. But at that point he was trying ever so hard to get people to like him. It was not easy for him. As much as Dusty is loved now, he was hated for those years.

Keirn saw what Rhodes was trying to do and it had a great effect on him. "I don't think too many

DUSTY RHODES EVE KEIRN?

Keirn has made it his mission to destroy the careers of the two men responsible for Rhodes' humiliation. Opposite left: Keirn piledrives Terry Funk's head into the canvas. people are aware just how difficult it is to change people's opinions of you," Keirn said. "Oh, it's one thing to be liked and then be hated. But once you're hated . . .

"This isn't easy for me to explain," Keirn continued. "But I was going through a rather painful experience at the time. Breaking into wrestling is not like starting a new job on an assembly line. It is extremely demanding emotionally. Now seeing Dusty Rhodes, a veteran of the sport, also going through an emotional experience, put me at ease a little.

"I think we both recognized this in each other. And we related to each other. We spoke about it a lot. I think I helped him a great deal, and I know he helped me."

After the Orlando incident, Keirn went to every promoter in Florida asking, pleading for a match against Race and Funk. Several promoters complied with his wishes. Most later regretted that they did.

Keirn was not himself in those matches. He neglected his scientific training and attacked like a wildman. Twice in the series of bouts, he was disqualified against Funk and once against Race.

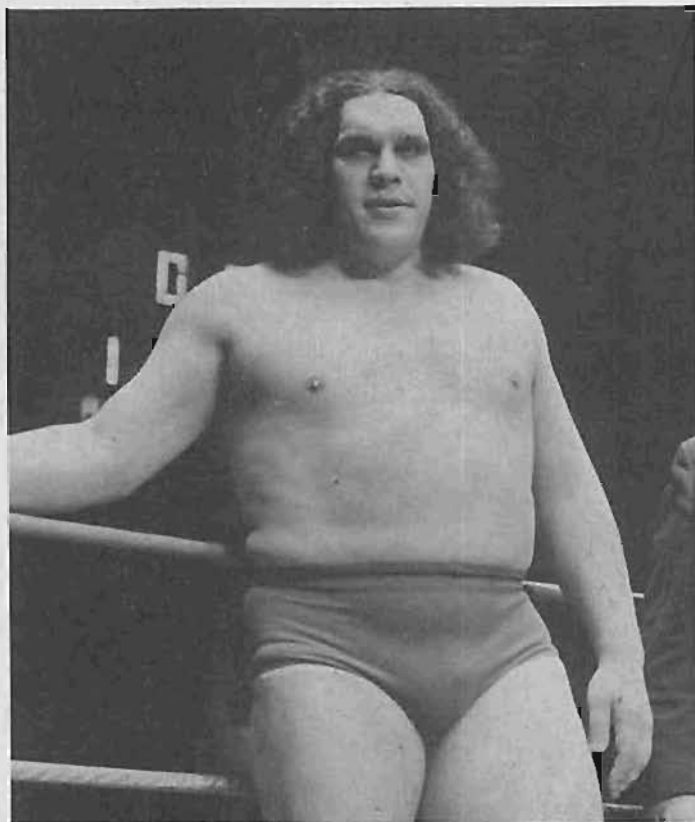

There is a man who is very concerned about Keirn's obsession to avenge Dusty Rhodes. And he is Dusty Rhodes.

"I don't like what I'm seein'," Dusty said. "Steve has slipped out. Don't get me wrong, it's nice to see he's concerned. But I don't like what he's doin'. He's actually hurtin' himself. His whole personality seems to have changed. I hope now that I'm wrestling again, he'll stop. Because if he doesn't stop soon, he might be changed for good."

Or for bad.

He's a modest man, one who would never grab credit for something he didn't deserve. Andre the Giant felt compelled, however, to tell the story of how he saved Bob Backlund's title. Not for his own sake, but for Backlund's—and the WWF

"HOW I SAVED BACKLUND'S TITLE"

By Andre the Giant

Bob Backlund attempts to drop Swede Hanson with a flying bodypress, but the wily veteran alertly caught the WWF champion in a bearhug.

IN MY OPINION, Bob Backlund is a very great champion. If he keeps his wits about him, Backlund could be champion for a long time. Like any other youngster, Backlund must watch out for his mental mistakes more than his physical errors.

Backlund committed such a mental error recently. I knew it would happen. All great ones suffer lapses and don't train as hard as they should or, in Backlund's case, let up a little for an opponent. It's called being over-confident.

I knew it would be a tough guy that Backlund would do this against. That guy was Swede Hanson. It was up to me to save Backlund's title.

Everyone knows how modest I try to be. I hate to draw attention to myself. As a child, I was the shy one. But I was also considered the friendly one. I am loyal to my friends and I consider Backlund one of them. I could detect his trouble right away.

We were in the gym and all Backlund would talk about was Pat Patterson this and Pat Patterson that. I think Backlund is becoming obsessed with Patterson. Not that I blame him. Those wars have been some of the most brutal I ever saw. Backlund's life was on the line several times. I know it left scars on him that nothing can help. But I would not let Backlund down. I knew he wasn't ready for a guy like Hanson.

My mind would not let me

rest. I had many sleepless nights, tossing and turning in turmoil. What could I do? How could I help my friend?

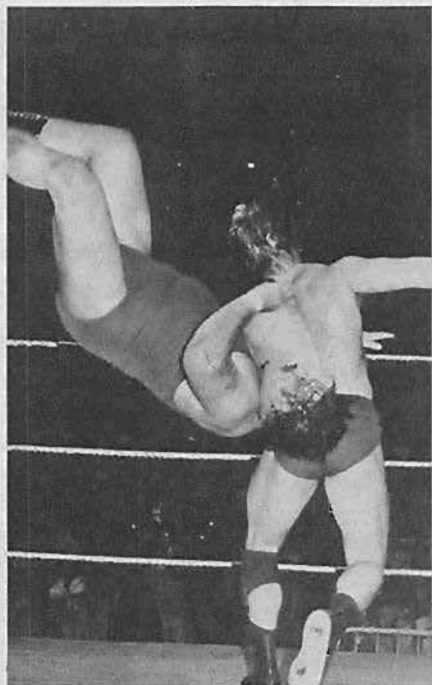

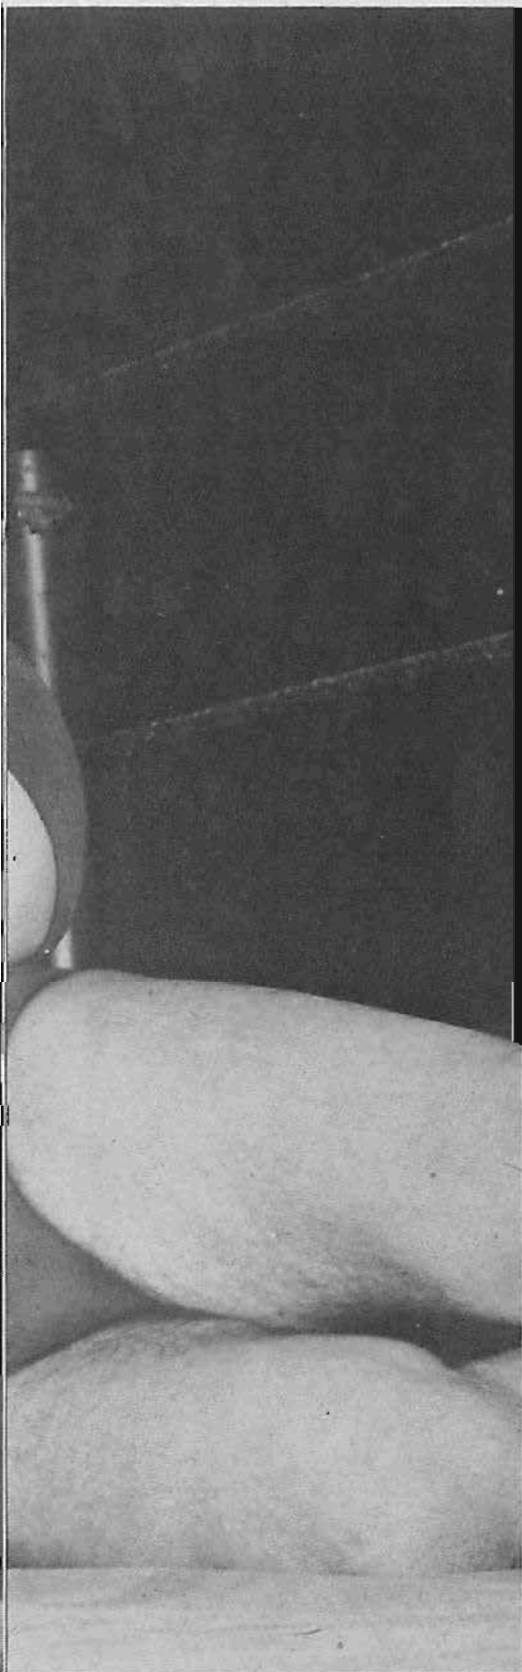

There was one path to follow. It would risk some injury to me. But I knew Bob would do the same for me. I had to wrestle Hanson before Backlund did. This way, I would soften Hanson up, batter him a bit and make him less formidable against Backlund.

I couldn't tell Bob this. If he knew what and why I was doing, he'd hit the ceiling. Backlund is a proud man. Maybe too proud, a little stubborn. Well, so am I. Nothing to be ashamed of.

I decided not to tell Backlund what I was doing. That was difficult. We have an unspoken agreement to see each of our matches and report back, usually over a fine dinner. I had to come up with some excuse to keep Backlund from the arena so he wouldn't see who I was wrestling.

Until now, no one, not even Bob Backlund—knew that Andre the Giant played a major role in his title defense against Swede Hanson. Left: Hanson's eyes show the pain of Backlund's necklock. Above: Bob Backlund drops Swede to the mat. Below: Hanson leaps off the turnbuckle, but the champ rolls away in time.

Fortunately, my dog Jacques was the excuse I needed. Bob loves Jacques and Jacques loves Bob. Someone once said one should never use an illness as a lie because you could inadvertently wish a disease on that person. But for once this had to be done.

I called Bob and told him he had to bring Jacques to the vet. Poor Bob, he sounded so unhappy. I reassured him it was nothing serious. I told him Jacques couldn't seem to hold food lately. Bob understood.

That's how I got Bob Backlund to go to the veterinarian that evening and not see what I was doing. I don't want people to get the impression I'm some kind of noble saint or something.

Let me tell you that Bob Backlund could whip Swede Hanson any day of the week. And he did, just after I finished with Swede. But that Hanson is a tough cookie and he needed a little softening here and there. He needed a few whacks in the gut and several belts in the head so he'd learn a valuable lesson about life.

I don't like to put bouquets on my head but I have to say I think I might have saved Bob Backlund's title. He was not prepared for a full assault by Hanson. It might have been disastrous.

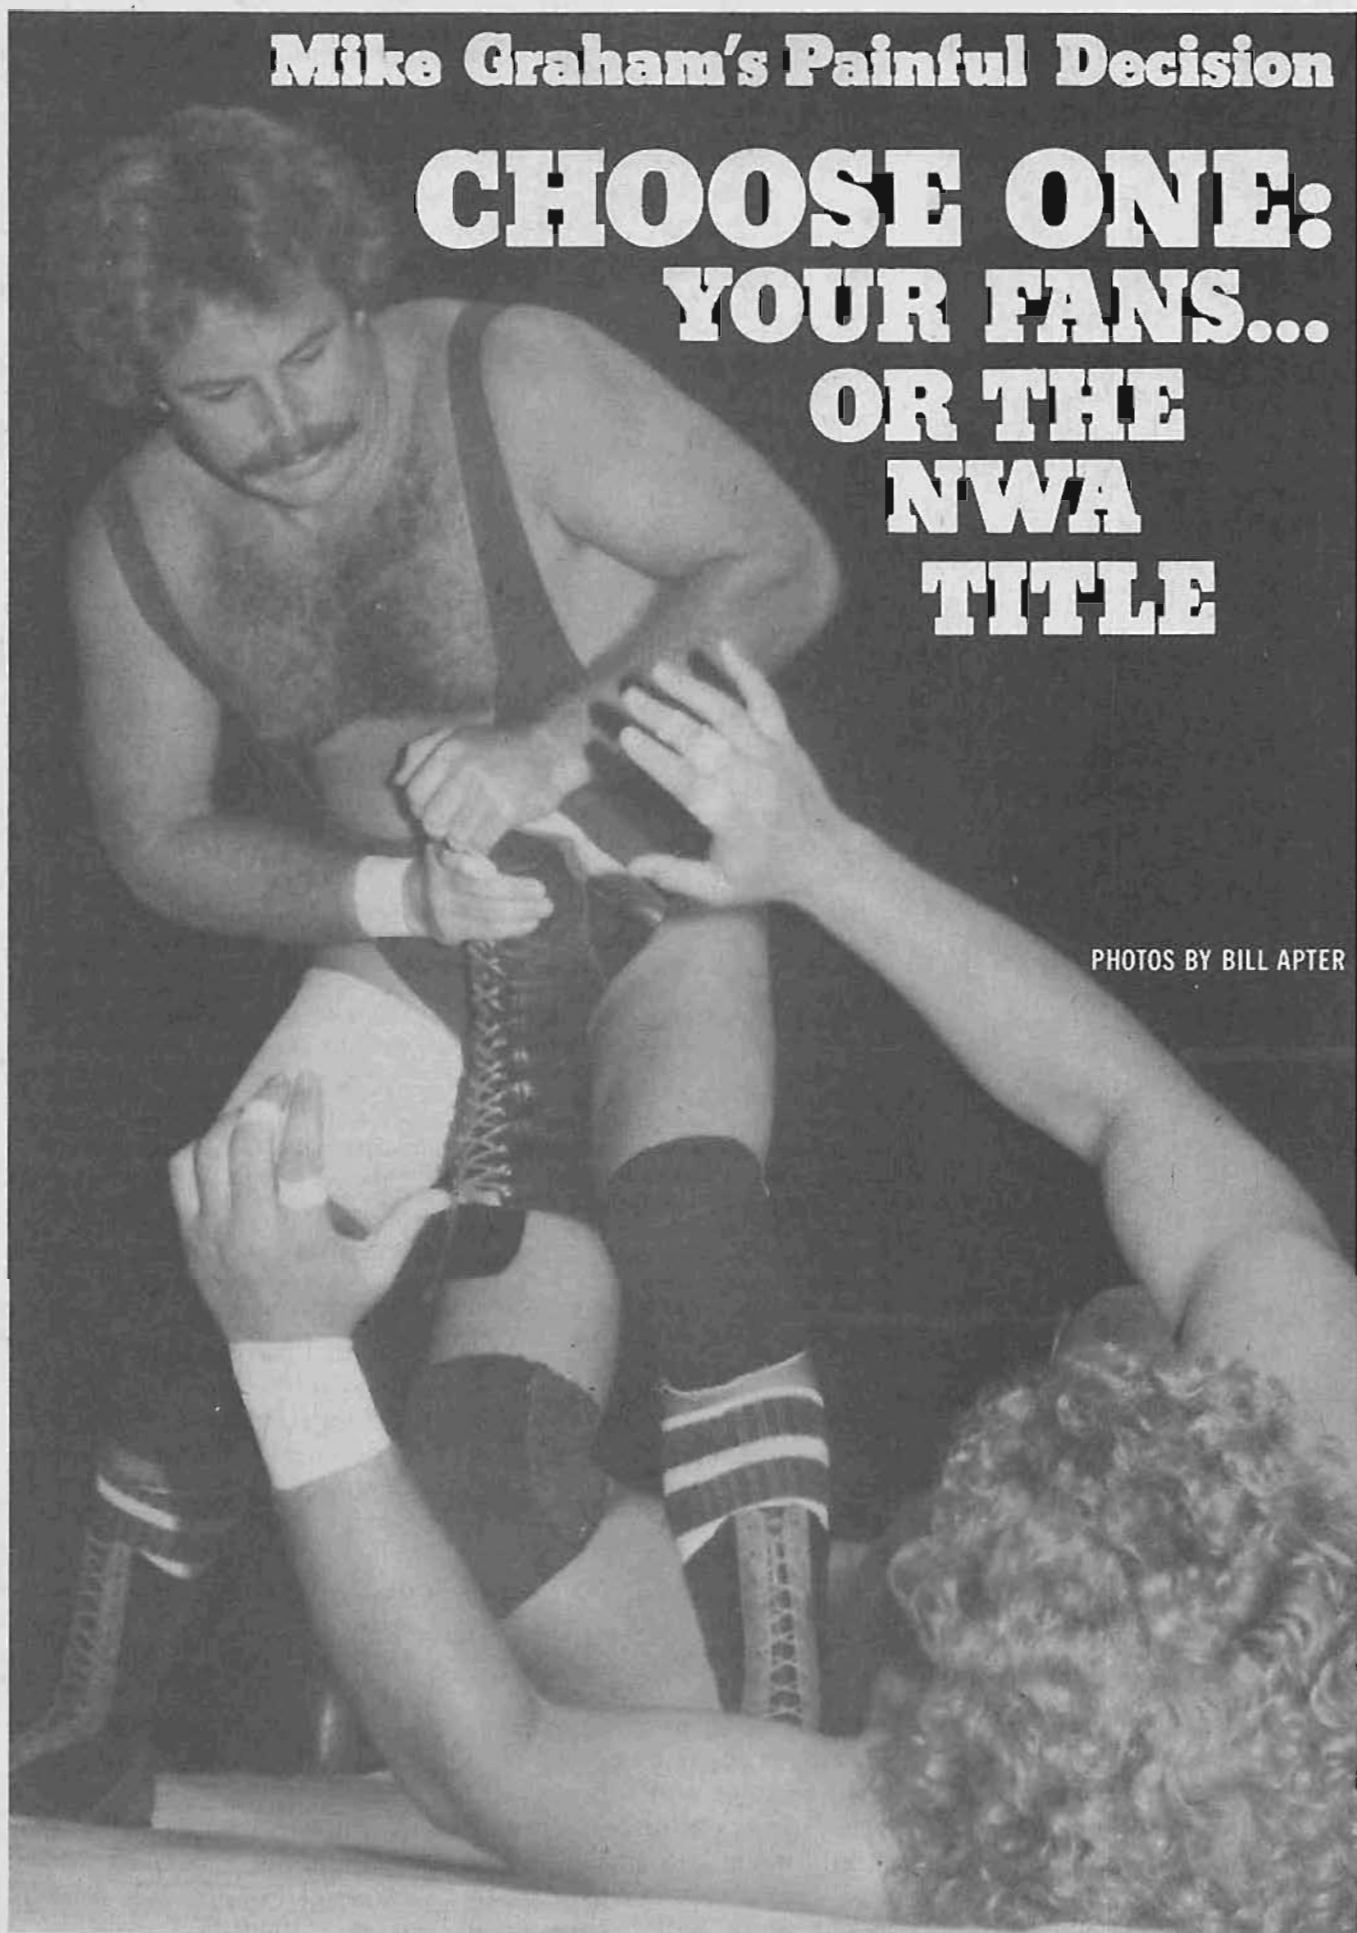

Ah, isn't that what friends are for? I have a great regard for friendships. Unfortunately, in wrestling, friendships are hard to come by. Too much jealousy around. I have no patience for petty little things. I've seen incredibly bloody feuds start over a simple misunderstanding. I've seen great tag teams ruined and friendships destroyed over a trivial little item. That's why I don't wrestle regularly with any partner. If I team with someone, I do so out of friendship and respect for that person's skills. If you stay too long, jealousy and little stuff will start and ruin everything.

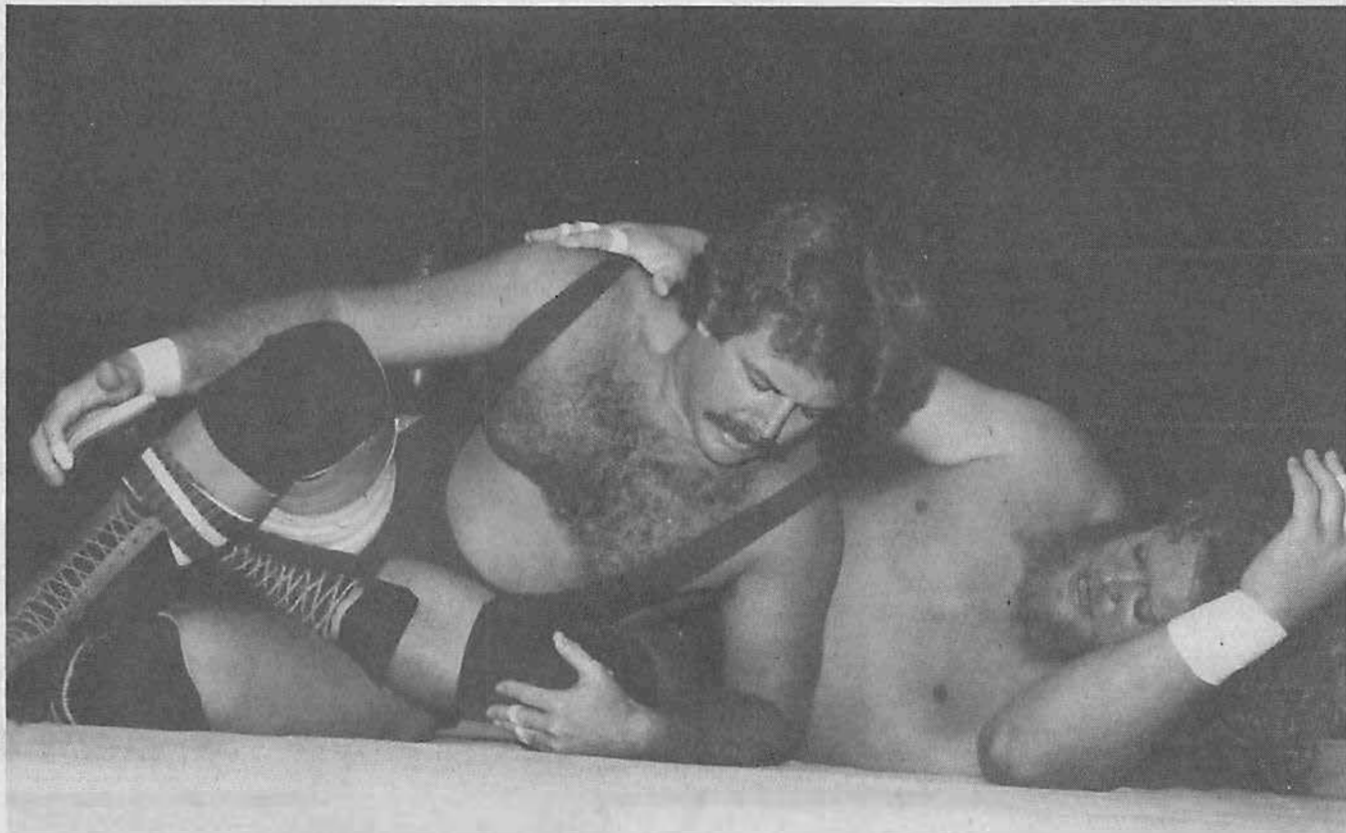

I've always considered Bob my good friend. That's why I did what I did. I'm proud to call Bob Backlund my friend. □

Mike Graham's Painful Decision

CHOOSE ONE:
YOUR FANS...
OR THE NWA

Mike Graham has full concentration on an ankle lock, but he has recently been faulted for playing to the fans at the expense of his aggressiveness. Experts, including his father, Eddie, feel that that habit could hinder his career.

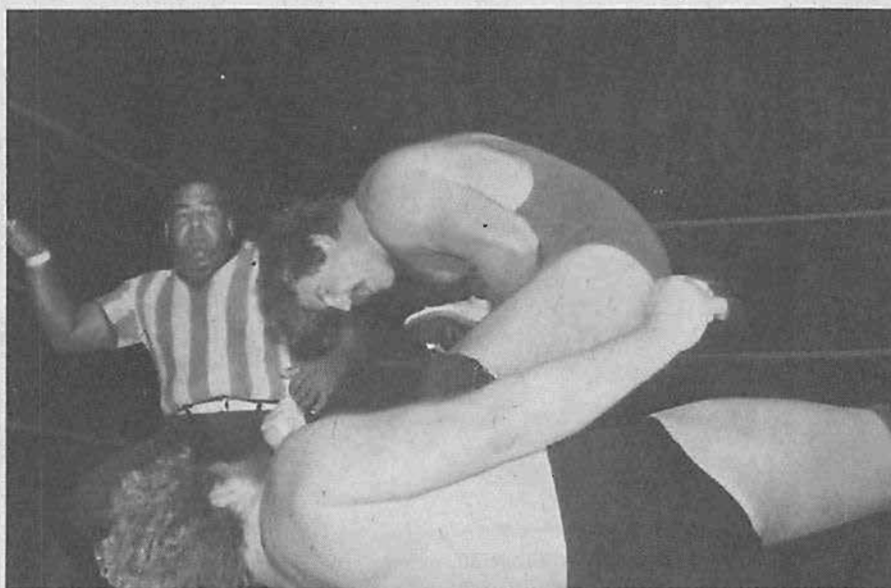

The time has come for Mike Graham to establish his priorities. What is more important to him, loyalty to his fans or the pursuit of the NWA title? The decision must be made soon

HIS HAND WAS raised in victory as it has been so many times before. The winner . . . Mike Graham. The crowd let off a tremendous roar. Graham pranced around the ring with both arms in the air as the fans' cheers grew even louder.

Florida wrestling fans are very close to Mike Graham. Mike Graham is very close to the fans. Perhaps too close.

Graham signed a few autographs and shook some hands on his way back to the dressing room. His broad smile, seemingly glued to his face, quickly vanished as he walked through the dressing room door. There stood Eddi:

For the early part of their match, Graham worked exclusively on Thor the Viking's left leg. He let up, however, when Thor begged for mercy.

LIKE ANY OTHER field where humans tread, wrestling is afflicted with injustices. In their own way, they outrage participants as much as spiraling inflation or gas lines. Culprits are sought and punishment demanded. Sometimes we can do something about it. Other times, we are powerless, helpless to effect any positive changes.

We can demand changes. We can demand that injustices be rectified and the innocent be made whole. Thus, this month we ask the World Wrestling

N THE RICAN TITLE

Pat Patterson attacks DiBiase before the bell (above) and went on to win the title with the aid of brass knuckles. Ted holds Hussein in an armbar (below).

Quickly, he captured the North American title, a monumental achievement for one so young. Rumors circulated that he would soon challenge Bob Backlund for the WWF title. Never has one federation held two such talented young grapplers.

Then Pat Patterson struck. He struck swiftly and repeatedly. It was a bloody, treacherous assault. When all was over, Patterson was the North American champion. He used every devious trick one creature can use on a human being. But it was the infamous brass knuckles which led to DiBiase's demise.

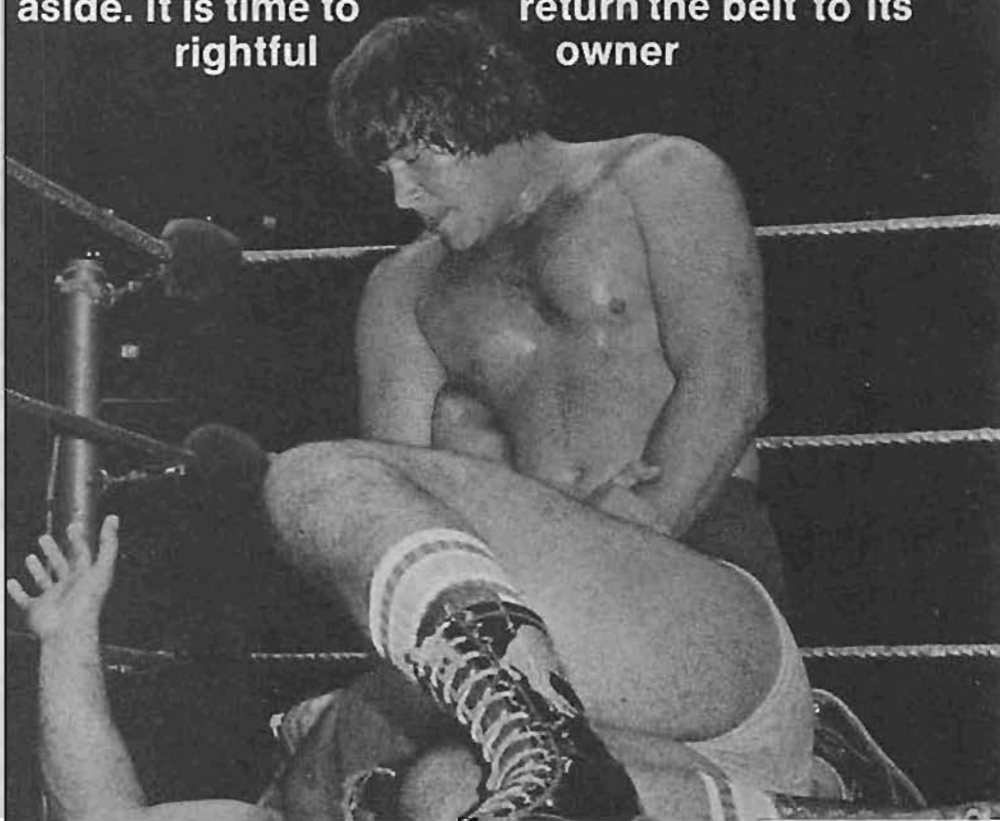

Yes, those sordid, loathsome brass knuckles. That is no way for a champion to act. Yet that is how Patterson claimed victory.

Later, Patterson used those very same brass knuckles on other opponents, notably, Bob Backlund. But that's another story, another tale of woe.

Recently, Patterson further soiled the title by turning his back on the championship and

Ted DiBiase cherished his North American belt. He worked hard to preserve the honor and glory of the title. But then it was taken away from him by a madman with brass knuckles, who degraded the belt and cast it aside. It is time to return the belt to its rightful owner

By Masked Superstar

I HOPE SOME of you moronic creeps can understand this story. I know most fans can't read. Well, what do you expect from retards, anyway. I look around this idiotic wrestling writers' office and see the same morons I see in the arena. No wonder I'm so bent out of shape. I can't stand surrounding myself with morons.

Well, there's a reason I asked these fools at this magazine to let me write this article. I gotta get something off my chest before it's too late. People ask me a lot of questions about myself. Usually I tell them to take a powder or jump off a cliff. But I get tired of moron writers printing lies about me and the moron fans who don't know any better swallowing them like they were turkey on Thanksgiving.

People ask me who I am. I tell 'em I'm Masked Superstar. They ask me what I do in my spare time, where I eat or where I live. It ain't none of their damn business. Most times I pick the punk up by the throat and choke off a little air.

That shuts 'em up. But one question which always bugged me is about to be answered. Lots of morons have asked it before and it's high time I gave them an honest, forthright answer befitting my status as greatest wrestler who ever lived.

I want to warn you fools that it might be tough to take. After all, I'm punching holes in one of your favorites, one of your fair-haired boys. I'm talkin' about Wahoo McDaniel. As sorry as I am to say this, he's a brother of mine. A sick

FLAIR IS TRULY A HERO

I'd like to point out that in your article, "How Paul Jones Turned Ric Flair Into A Hero" (October/1979), you were right when you stated that Paul Jones will always be hated. But I believe you have to change your statement about Ric Flair.

He will not always be hated. As a matter of fact, he has already earned the love and support of many legions of fans. This one night was when Flair showed the world what he is really made of. Yes Ric Flair is truly a hero. And it came from within himself.

If Rick Steamboat trusts Flair, so do I. If Blackjack Mulligan trusts him, so do I.

BRUNO IS A BUM

Although I have never had the displeasure of seeing Bruno Sammartino in action, I think he is a bum. All the pictures one sees of him in action, Sammartino is using his fists or kicking. I never see him use a

A BRUNO FIGHT SONG

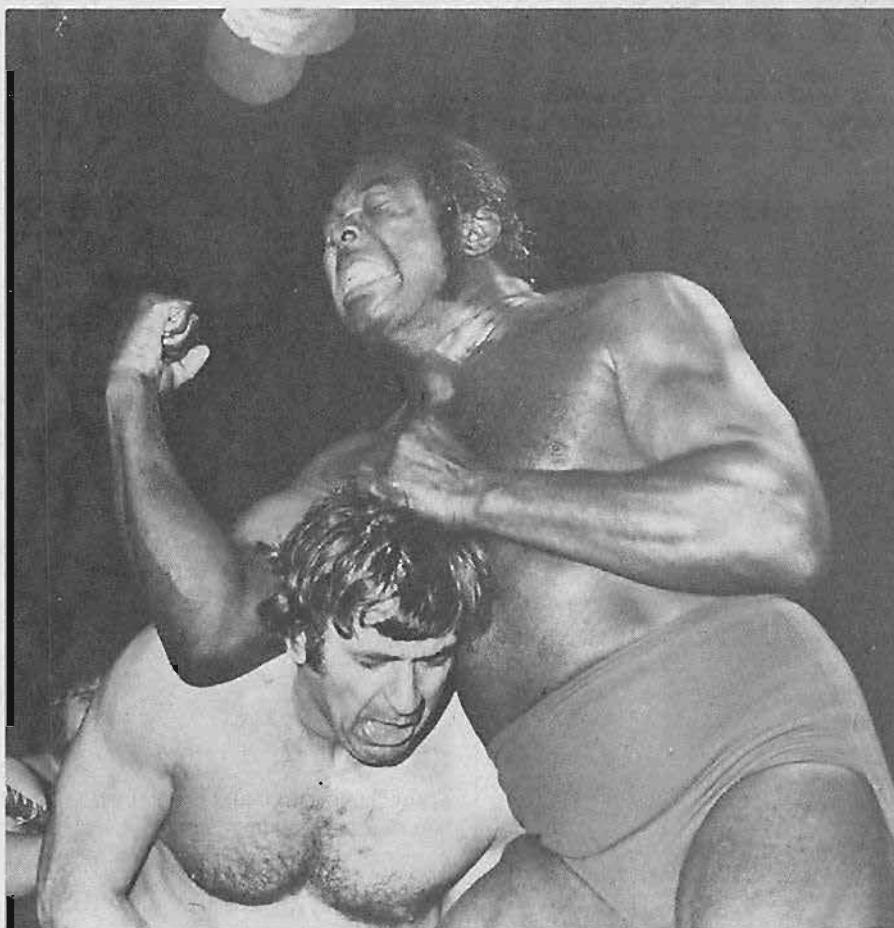

Would you please see that Bruno Sammartino hears the Sammartino fight song? It's sung to the same music as the Pittsburgh Steelers fight song.

Some of Bruno Sammartino's fans have composed a fight song honoring their hero. It is sung to the melody of the well-known Pittsburgh Steelers' fight song.

He's Bruno Sammartino
Bruno has whipped them all

Bobo Brazil slams his powerful right elbow into Baron Scicluna's neck. Bobo has long been one of the most popular men in all of wrestling. Reader Michael Monteiro says that the sport would improve greatly if other wrestlers took note of his style.

BOBO IS ONE OF A KIND

I'm writing this letter to bring the following fact to your attention. Bobo Brazil has been a favorite of mine, as well as many others, over the years. Sure there have been other great mat stars, like Bruno Sammartino and Andre the Giant, but Bobo Brazil is one of a kind.

If some of these wrestlers would take a lesson from Bobo, wrestling would improve a heckuva lot.

MAKES ME SICK

I had to write about what Pat Patterson did to Bob Backlund. It was disgraceful. The bum hit Bob with some brass knuckles. Those were the same brass knuckles Patterson used to beat Ted DiBiase for the North American title. Patterson used this method because he knew he couldn't win any other way.

It makes me sick to think a wrestler would do that to a fellow grappler. He ought to be banned. Well, I just wanted to tell you that Pat Patterson isn't my favorite wrestler anymore.

YOU ASKED US

Bruno Sammartino and Larry Zbyszko have teamed on many occasions. Larry has often been called a "young Bruno." They will, according to Bruno, team again very shortly.

Q: I can't figure out why Bruno Sammartino and Larry Zbyszko never join forces as a tag team. I really think they would make a good tag team and probably win a major title in the immediate future—Vernon Shanabrook, Hanover, Pa.

A: "You know, Vernon, Larry and I have always had a special sort of relationship," Sammartino said. "Many consider him my protege' and we have wrestled as a team before. Doggone it, you can bet we'll do it again before we hang up the laced boots."

Q: Will Buddy Rogers ever wrestle again?—Todd Kuhl, Bradenton, Fla.

A: Buddy Rogers is still inflicting physical and mental anguish on opponents, notably in the Mid-Atlantic area. In addition to his wrestling, Rogers has turned to managing. The veteran Buddy "Nature Boy" Rogers still dons the wrestling tights on occasion, but he has done most of his damage lately as a manager.

"Nature Boy" claims Jimmy Snuka is among his recent converts to rulebreaking.

Q: Is my friend crazy or not? He says that Verne Gagne wrestled Bruno Sammartino for the WWF title years ago. I know my friend has problems, but is he correct? If so, I'll never live it down because I wrote "Fool," on his bedroom window—Scott O'Neill, New York, N.Y.

A: No, Scott, Bruno Sammartino never wrestled Verne Gagne for the WWF title.

Q: In their first reign as WWF champions, from whom did the Valiant Brothers win the title and whom did they lose it to?—Linda Hitz, Hartford, Conn.

John Valiant (pictured) and his brother, Jim, originally won the WWF tag team title from Tony Garea and Dean Ho. Recently, Ivan Putski and Tito Santana captured the belts from the Valiants.

A: The Valiants won the title from Tony Garea and Dean Ho in a brutal match that shocked all of wrestling. However, it took the fabulous duo of Dominic DeNucci and Victor Rivera to wrest the belt from those fiendish Valiants. ☐

Blackjack Mulligan reaches in vain to tag off to Ric Flair, who is being stomped by Paul Jones. Both Flair and Mulligan are reformed rulebreakers.

folder labeled, "Mid-Atlantic Wrestling—1979" onto the desk. "See these little notations I made when Flair started teaming with Steamboat?" Kugel shoved the folder across the desk, gesturing at a column of scribbles. "Right here, I noted that Flair and Steamboat were too volatile to team together. Now, if Flair had decided to calm down and grow responsive to fan wishes without pairing with Steamboat, he might have regained the road which would lead him to a great career as a scientific wrestler."

Kugel rose and lifted a picture of Buddy Rogers off a tack in the wall. For a moment, Kugel's lined face drifted backward, traveling through the misty land of memories and old arenas.

Shaking his graying head, Kugel returned to the present.

"Flair and Rogers would have my head on a pike for saying this, but there is a great similarity here," Kugel said, sipping a cup of coffee. "Beyond this 'Nature Boy' nickname business, they're both tough guys with a world of talent who decided to wrestle as bad guys.

"That's one of the reasons why I don't think Flair will stay as a fan favorite. He and Steamboat are too volatile, that's a start. And Flair himself doesn't have the temperament to form an effective tag team for any length of time," Kugel continued.

"If he would stay as an individual, he might be able to sort himself out and hold on to his new position as a fan favorite. But as soon as he teams with someone, the hatred begins and an explosion is inevitable," Kugel said, pausing to light another cigar.

"Now that Greg Valentine is coming back here, ah, I think that'll be the final blow." Kugel paused and examined the smoke clinging about his head. He smiled at some inner joke and continued.

"I hear that Valentine has vowed to return Flair to the ways of rulebreaking. From what I can see, Greg Valentine is the only guy Flair has ever trusted," Kugel said. "If anyone can make Flair into a bad guy again it's Valentine.

"What a shame that'd be. Flair has the potential to become one of the all-time greats. Instead, he'll allow himself to be ruined by a man like Valentine," Kugel said. He rose and crushed the cigar in the ashtray. Deliberately, he slipped the folder back into the messy cabinet, leaving the drawer slightly open. □

DUSTY RHODES

Maniac Mark Lewin rips at Dusty's nostrils. Since sustaining a broken arm and losing the NWA title, Rhodes has been slumping.

high. Though Rhodes has been known to tough it out, he's clean. No cheating from Rhodes. So for the belt to be lost on a crummy blow by Funk dug deeply."

Rhodes' increasing bitterness was another aspect the panel focused upon.

"In all my years in wrestling, I've never seen anyone that bitter," said our third expert, a tall, rangy middle-aged gentleman. "Rhodes is almost blinded by his bitterness. I don't think he can think about anything but Terry Funk and what happened that evening.

"All Rhodes' energies are directed to that one objective," he continued. "If you are so obsessed, you can't plan a strategy or react properly. Animal instincts are not enough in the NWA."

A consensus quickly developed. Apparently, Rhodes was not afflicted with the kind of slump other champions have endured. His difficulties were unique to his situation.

"Any wrestler has a letdown after a title loss," said the fourth member, an elderly woman. "It's natural. With the NWA title, it just seems to last a little longer, that's all. I don't think anyone in this room could offer a logical explanation for it. It's just one of those bizarre things.

"Rhodes isn't suffering a letdown per se. He's in emotional turmoil."

All these insights and opinions skirted the central topic. Has Dusty Rhodes lost it? Will he disappear, another sacrifice to oblivion?

"Definitely not," said the elderly

Blood oozes into Rhodes' closed right eye as Lewin continues his assault.

woman, momentarily putting down her knitting. "Rhodes won it once and he'll do it again."

"All Rhodes needs is to get his energies back on the right path," said the middle-aged man. "The talent and intensity is still there."

"Once Rhodes convincingly beats Funk, he'll be okay and ready to mount another challenge to Race," said the heavy-set man.

"Champions don't lose it," said the grey-haired man. "Otherwise, they're not champions." ☐

Backlund?

A: I've got two advantages right from the start, well, more than that. I'll start with experience. I know ways to wrestle that Backlund wouldn't learn in a million years.

Q: Some would call that dirty knowledge.

A: I don't care what some would call it. Can I go on? Thanks. As I was saying, I'm more experienced than Backlund. Call it wily. I've got instincts which can't be learned. I was that way in my first match. Also, I've Duncum refuses to let Jim Brunzell re-enter the ring. Bobby is now in the WWF with his sights on one man—champion Bob Backlund. "I know ways to wrestle that Backlund wouldn't learn in a million years," he said. "Call it wily. I've got instincts that can't be learned."

got the physical advantage over Backlund. I'm stronger and larger. Probably quicker. What's that leave Howdy Doody? Oh, he probably bleeds better than me. I don't have much experience in that.

Q: Assuming you would defeat Backlund for the WWF title, what would the reign of Duncum as champion be like?

A: Ah, I would bring wrestling back to the level it once was. Courage would be rewarded. Talent would be acknowledged. All those whining half-wits would be thrown out. Wrestling would be a proud sport again without cretins like Backlund and Sammartino.

Q: Thanks for stopping by, Bobby.

A: My pleasure. □

SPECIAL OFFER TO OUR CUSTOMERS

VERY RARE BACK ISSUES TO COMPLETE YOUR COLLECTIONS-$5 per copy

We receive many requests from collectors all over the world for back issues which were sold out long ago. Some collectors offered as much as $25 for a single rare back issue. Unfortunately, we could not comply because not even one copy remained.

But here is some good news. We recently consolidated our warehouses and uncovered a small number of copies of some issues which had been sold out for years. Now we are offering these extremely rare issues, on a FIRST COME FIRST SERVE BASIS, for $5 per copy. These copies will not last long, so we caution you to order immediately to avoid being disappointed. Not all these copies are in perfect condition. Some have soiled backs or marred covers and frayed edges. But they are still very rare collectors' items, well worth $5 a copy.

These are the issues available at this time in very limited quantities:

Mike Graham asks the fans' approval as he rhythmically jerks Thor the Viking's arm. When Mike lets the fans dictate his strategy, he often loses momentum.

Graham, Mike's father and mentor, with a sullen look on his face. He was not at all pleased with Mike's performance.

Mike knew exactly what was on his father's mind. He threw his arms in the air and sighed. "Come on dad, what do you want from me. This guy, Thor the Viking, is one of the tougher men around and I think I handled him okay," Mike said. "I won didn't I? Doesn't that count for anything?"

Eddie paused and stared into his son's eyes. "Mike," he said, "you're not a kid anymore. I don't have to stand here and repeat the same things to you time after time. You know damn well that you didn't follow your game plan in that match. Sure, you won. And it's great to win. And we can't take a thing away from Thor. But what do you really want out of wrestling? You want the NWA title, that's what. I don't have to keep telling you why you don't have it."

Embarrassed, Mike lowered his head and nodded. The joy of his night's success seemed days behind now. In fact, Mike Graham knew exactly what his father was talking about. He knows his weakness. He knows what stands in the way of his gaining the title.

Evidence of his problem was seen at various times during his match with Thor the Viking. Mike had the upperhand and slammed Thor's head into the turnbuckle twice. Before a third slam, he held Thor's head with his right hand and gestured to the fans with his left, seeking encouragement to continue the onslaught. The brief pause stopped his momentum and gave Thor enough time to grab Mike's trunks and pull him to the mat.

Later, Graham had Thor on the retreat after three successive dropkicks. As Mike advanced to continue his offensive, Thor dropped to his knees in the corner and begged for mercy. Mike stopped and looked to the fans to see if he should continue. As he turned his head, however, Thor rose quickly and drove his shoulder into Mike's midsection, taking the advantage.

"What can I say," Mike asked. "The fans are very important to me. I draw a great deal of my strength from them. I owe so much to them."

"That's true, Mike," Eddie said. "I am fully aware of that. But remember this. The fans do not have to go into the ring. The fans do not have to risk their limbs. And furthermore, the fans can never win the NWA title."

"Damn it," Mike said, clenching his fists. "I want that title."

"Then show it," said Eddie sternly. "Get in the ring. Forget about the fans. Concentrate solely on your opponent. Keep that concentration for the length of the match. Be aggressive but clean. Win your match, and then you can acknowledge the fans."

Graham reaches down to trip out Thor the Viking.

"You know you can get by doing what you are doing now," Eddie continued. "You can probably beat good wrestlers 95 percent of the time this way. But when you wrestle the greats, when the wins become essential for your next shot at the title, then you have to give it your all. And that means forget about the fans for a while."

Mike looked at his father for a moment and embraced him. "Thanks, Dad." ☐ all the attendant glory. He had won the Inter-Continental title in Rio de Janeiro. Naturally, Patterson was awed by this stunning victory and decided he wanted to defend that title.

Where did that leave the North American belt? In a shambles. All its credibility was lost. How can fans believe in a title when the champions disdain it? How, indeed?

In recent memory, one man did distinguish this belt. One man did believe in it, did address himself to the needs of the fans. His name was Ted DiBiase. He lost the belt to a vicious man. He should get it back.

We don't believe championships should be settled in print. This is a man's sport and men decide titles in the ring. Journalists shouldn't decide who deserves a title. Except...

These are unusual circumstances and require unusual stances. If the authorities won't do something about the string of abuses Patterson has heaped upon wrestling, we will!

Some might suggest an elimination tournament to determine the eventual North American titlist. Perhaps. Maybe such a tournament would attract the very cream of wrestling. Unfortunately, the sour cream would also follow. The maniacs, the madmen, the cunning screwballs would infiltrate and pollute such a tournament.

And why have such a tourney? Indeed, the real champion has never left the WWF. Even now, he risks his career in bloody bouts against lunatics like Hussein Arab. DiBiase enters the squared circle unarmed save for his plentiful natural gifts. He carries no foreign objects into the ring. All he lugs between the ropes is his courage.

Add dignity to that. He is a gracious, fine young man. He deserved better treatment than he has received. If creeps like Patterson can run over youngsters like DiBiase, knowing full well no punishment will ensue, what encouragement is that to future generations?

We ask that Ted DiBiase be given the North American title. The integrity of wrestling depends on it. ☐

MASKED SUPERSTAR

Why is Wahoo trying to remove Masked Superstar's mask (above)? Is there any truth to Superstar's story that Wahoo is paying him to keep it on? Wahoo hangs bloodied over the bottom strand (below).

brother. You see, me and Wahoo come from the same tribe. Yup, I'm an Indian. Full-blooded Indian who likes nothin' better than whoopin' it up. Same as Wahoo.

But Wahoo knows he ain't got much talent. Hell, he can barely tie his boots up without help. He's a bum, a stiff, a turkey. But he ain't a complete dope. He knew that with two Indians, the fans would naturally side up and favor one of us. And he knew it had to be me. Hell, talent and looks still count for something, don't they?

So I'll never forget this night as long as I live. Wahoo comes into the dressing room, his ugly face drooping and scratching the ground. I could see he was low. I could care less. Wahoo McDaniel ain't the sort you trust or care about. He'd drive a stake into your heart in a second, if you let him. I ain't made it to the top letting punks cut me in the back.

I'm sittin' there, humming a tune to myself. Wahoo comes in, says nothin', just lays a crisp bill next to me. A big bill. Nothin' small about it. I just look down at the dough and back at Wahoo. He nods and tells me to take the bread. I check him out, suddenly suspicious. A creep like Wahoo McDaniel doesn't give money unless he wants something in return. If you catch my drift.

I stare at him, real hard. All of a sudden Wahoo starts bawlin', cryin' like a baby. I give him a tissue, he's disgustin', a grown man weepin' and bawlin' like that. I ask him what's wrong.

Scared, Wahoo looks around. No one else was in the locker room. He confides to me that he thinks he won't make it as a wrestler and maybe shoulda stayed in pro football. He coulda got a job as a water boy luggin' Gatorade or somethin'. Wahoo says he knows the fans would never accept both of us. Their loyalties would be cut in half. He wanted to know if I would kinda fade away.

I didn't ask anything. I stood up and threw his ugly body in the lockers. He started whimperin' like a scraggly dog and beggin' that I don't hurt him. He puts his hands up to defend himself, all the while cryin', and says that he just wanted me to wear a mask so there'd be only one Indian around.

I'm proud of my heritage. Damn proud. But I'm a lot prouder of big bucks. I demanded, and still get, 30 percent of Wahoo McDaniel's salary. Ain't bad, considering he's a stiff and makes little. But I wanted you fools out there to know the truth. ☐

THE MAGIC POWER OF WITCHCRAFT

Whatever it is you need or want, Witchcraft can get it for you quickly, easily, and automatically, say these experts. You'll discover how it can bring abundant and overflowing wealth, find or bring back a lover, ward off evil influences, and much more—step-by-step in plain English, with complete easy-to-follow instructions!

Yes... Witchcraft! Every time you hear the word it brings with it the feelings of deep occult secrets—secrets that you would like to know so that your life can be better; so that your enemies will stop bothering you; so that serenity, love, power and comfort can be yours!

THE MAGIC POWER OF WITCHCRAFT lays bare these secrets for the first time! Do you want a bank account bursting at the seams with money? A love life that would make a sultan envious? Supreme power to crush your enemies and reward your friends? What would it be worth to you to utter a simple incantation that would cause any pain to vanish? Or say another, and immediately recover some lost object?

What would it be worth to you to fly through time and space, on astral wings, as Witches do... go wherever you wish... do whatever you wish... without being detected... watch the antics of others behind closed doors... hear private conversations... make time run forward or backward... read tomorrow's newspaper in a "black mirror"... find out what really happened in history... make your face old or young at will!

BRINGS AUTOMATIC ASSURED SUCCESS!

Witchcraft can bring your heart's desire! You can use it to heal someone, influence the boss to give you that raise, or make someone stop bothering you! It's easy! The easiest thing in the world! You don't have to be wealthy or super-intelligent to get started! Thousands of ordinary people all over the world are using Witchcraft Power right now!

Witches have known for centuries that people are scared of them and their power! And rightly so! NOW YOU CAN SHARE THE SAME POWER that gives you literally life and death control over other persons! Is someone bothering you? No problem at all, use Magic Witchcraft. For example, there is a spell called the "Cross Out My Path" ritual, for people who are having neighbor trouble. When you use it, you know you will never again have trouble with this neighbor!

With these amazing Witchcraft secrets, other people will look up to you—in awe—you'll automatically dazzle others with your power to make things happen at your will, you'll be Master of your destiny, and never have to apologize to anyone for anything!

Whatever you want or need, whatever frustration is bothering you, Witchcraft will help you. It is not evil—nor is it Black Magic. Like electricity, it is simply a power given by nature for the use of man, to make life easier.

You'll see how to get paid without working... how to get expensive clothes and furs FREE... how to get a first-class plane seat FREE... how to vacation at the finest hotels, motels, pools and pleasure palaces, start living like a millionaire as Witches do!

For centuries, these Witchcraft secrets were hushed up, so that those in power could stay in power! Feudal lords kept their bondsmen as slaves. Factory owners kept their employees in dreaded sweatshops, because these masters knew they must not allow their workers to realize that they could not lose their lives away. Witchcraft was suppressed because it worked! Not because of any "evil" in it. If it hadn't worked, no one would have worried about it. If you want to gain power, all you need is this amazing Witch Book!

By using these Witchcraft secrets, you too can change your life and gain health, wealth, someone to love—no anything else—surely, swiftly and automatically!

Making your own personal Black Mirror takes only a few moments, and can open the way to unguessable answers. All you need is a bowl of water, love, salt, and the chant on page 23. miracles happen in their daily lives!

You'll see how Yvonne, a man who likes to give a lot of expensive parties, was always short of cash until he discovered the amazing WITCH'S MONEY JAR—now all he has to do is dip in, for it brings him an endless flow of cash! Evelyn, a waitress, was always lending money to friends, and was always broke. Finally, she placed her last dollar on the table, and worked the MONEY MAGNET SPELL over it. All at once, dozens of people who had borrowed money from her, rushed to pay her back!

Hank was perpetually broke. One night he got together with some friends, and they decided to cast the MONEY SPELL. The very next day, Hank received in the mail a check for some $250 worth of insurance. (He had never heard of the company that sent the check, he was not insured with them, and had never even made a claim—but he accepted the money.) Another member of the group that used the spell, a 40-year-old secretary, received an automobile as a gift! All the other members of the group received amazing windfalls of money, as well! You'll see how Dexter, a retiree, lives RENT FREE and receives $200 a week at the age of 78, with a secret you'll find in this Witch Book! You'll see how Claudine, a secretary, was able to wear the finest, most expensive furs—FREE!—and spend weekends at an expensive ski lodge in the mountains, where she met a wonderful man! How Ruth L., a widow, with nothing but a small pension, and a little savings—received her dream house, by using a simple 5-minute ritual on page 38 of this book!

Using the same Witchcraft secrets, YOU can achieve peace of mind and freedom from money worries for the rest of your life!

YOU CAN HEAL YOURSELF AS WITCHES DO!

Feeling sick today? Plagued by a lot of troublesome illnesses? Perhaps some relative is sick and constantly demanding your attention? Or perhaps it is even a pet that needs help? With the MAGIC POWER OF WITCHCRAFT, you can cure anything, say authors Gavin and Yvonne Frost. "In our experience... we have not found a single incurable disease!"

• ANDY DISSOLVES A GALLSTONE!—Andy M. developed gallstones. When his illness became too troublesome to ignore, he went to a doctor. Urine tests revealed that he was chronically alkaline. His body was badly out of balance. Using this Witchcraft method to restore balance to the mind and body—in a short while, X-rays showed that he had no more gallstones! Andy never again suffered the excruciating pain of passing stones!

In the same way, say Gavin and Yvonne Frost, almost all illness can be prevented. You are actually employing an ancient Witchcraft method to remove diseased tissue! Even if you do not have any belief in the results, the power will work for you!

One woman, who had been in a wheelchair for 26 years, due to polio and arthritis, used the Witchcraft healing method, and reported that she had no pain and could walk and garden again! A man reported that his son's deep 1st degree burn miraculously healed overnight!

• SO SIMPLE A CHILD USKS IT!—A 4-year-old girl asked if she could try to heal a man who was limping—due to a torn ligament—with this simple Witchcraft healing method. In a matter of moments, she started her chant, taping her hands on the weak ankle. The man was miraculously cured! To skeptics, this should be convincing PROOF that anyone can use it!

AMAZING POWER CAN BE YOURS!

Whether you want infinite wealth, or just a comfortable new home, financial security, fine possessions, live companionship, new health and vigor, power to control others, secret knowledge, protection from evil, or anything else, the magic power of Witchcraft can bring it to you quickly, easily and automatically! It's the easiest thing in the world!

• HOW TO SEE INTO THE FUTURE!—Would you like to be able to see the future? You CAN! With the magic Black Mirror you'll see how to make on page 23. All you need is some ink and a bowl of water. Then use the chant on this page, and you will be able to see many things. One man used it to read tomorrow's newspaper. YOU can use it to check the stock market or that important horse race!

• MAKE TIME RUN BACKWARD OR FORWARD!

Booklet How to build a more Powerful body

Here's just a few of the muscle groups improved by the Universal Bodybuilding system.....

- Upper arms (biceps and triceps)--add size and strength to the upper arms.
- Forearms (flexors and extensors)--improve and develop your grip.
- Chest (pectorals)--develop and strengthen the chest muscles.
- Stomach (abdominals)--trim the waist area.
- Thighs (quadriceps)--develop your thighs to their fullest potential.
- Calf (gastrocnemius)--improve the shape of your lower legs.

GET INTO SHAPE

ONLY FOR THE HEALTHY!
Before embarking on this bodybuilding program or any other new physical endeavor, be sure to check with your physician for his okay. This course specializes in developing the body to its maximum potential and should only be attempted by those in good health.

Most men never develop themselves to their fullest potential. Why? Probably because they've never come across or taken a training program quite like the one we offer at Universal Bodybuilding.

Most men wouldn't want to be as heavily muscled as the model shown -- not that everyone has this type of potential -- but most men would like to be a lot better than what they are! You have it within yourself to develop to your fullest potential!

There's really no reason for not being in shape-- it certainly doesn't take that much time! All you have to do is follow our program three times a week. You will soon get results that you can see and feel! The satisfaction that comes from knowing you're working toward being the very best you can be is hard to beat!

Not only will the program help get you into shape, it will improve and increase your strength as well. This is a definite plus for those who want to step up their strength and endurance for sports!

Also, don't forget the psychological benefits of exercise. As you get into the habit of exercising, you'll have an increased awareness of self, and being more in touch with your body.

WHY LET YOURSELF DETERIORATE?

Face it! Unless you do something about it, your body will eventually become out of shape. As you get older, it is especially difficult to remain as active as you would like to be.

If you're out of shape, the combination of bodybuilding and diet can rid you of excess fat and flab. You'll see miracles performed on your waistline!

If you're at least 18 years of age, we'll be glad to send you a colorful booklet. Absolutely free! Simply send us your name, address and zip code.
